PARAPLEGIA

Index to volume 22 (1984)

Subject index

(A) Indicates an abstract
(D) Indicates a discussion of a paper at a meeting

Adrenomyeloneuropathy
Paraplegia due to adrenomyeloneuropathy, by Lamid and El Ghatit 119

Ambulation
Energy expenditure of ambulation in paraplegics: effects of long term use of bracing, by Chantraine et al. 173

Amyloidosis
Endocrine pathology in spinal cord injured patients on maintenance dialysis, by Barton et al. 7

Appliances
An apparatus making possible restoration of simple functions of the tetraplegic hand, by Kiwerski and Pasniczek 316
Energy expenditure of ambulation in paraplegics: effects of long term use of bracing, by Chantraine et al. 173
Halo-body device, by Hughes et al. 260
Preliminary communication: a tridigital dynamic orthosis for tetraplegic patients, by Dollfus and Oberlé 115
Simple devices for the physically disabled, by Harrison and Vise 182

Atropine
Atropine toxicity in acute cervical spinal injury, by Baker and Silver 379

Autonomic Dysfunction
Dermal fibrosis secondary to autonomic dysfunction following spinal cord injury, by Stover et al. 198(A)

Beds
A tilting bed for the urodynamic assessment of spinal cord injured patients, by Gardner et al. 383

Benzene
Benzene poisoning as a possible cause of transverse myelitis, by Herregods et al. 305

Book Reviews
55, 127, 194, 268, 330, 386

Complications
Incidence of medical complications in spinal cord injury: patients in specialised compared with non-specialised centres, by Donovan et al. 48(A), 282
Rehabilitation after spinal cord injuries complicated by previous lesions, by Ohry and Frankel 291

Coronary Disease
Cardiovascular risk factors and spinal cord injury: serum magnesium and lipoprotein cholesterol, by Brenes et al. 54(A)

Cysts
Post-traumatic cysts: review of post-operative functional outcomes, by Garrison and Donovan 53(A)

Domiciliary Care
The role of the home visiting nurse in the total education programme of spinal cord injured persons, by Beer 311

Editorials
By Harris 1, 3, 333

Education
Comprehensive education for those concerned with spinal cord injury patients, by Houston 244
Programme of active education in the psychosocial integration of paraplegics, by Pachalski and Pachalska 238
The role of the home visiting nurse in the total education programme of spinal cord injured persons, by Beer 311

Ejaculation
The fertility of men with spinal injuries, by Brindley 337

Electrical Stimulation
Electrical stimulation of the conus medullaris for bladder emptying in a paraplegic, by Carlsson and Fall 87
Electrical stimulation of motor nerve and muscle, by Creasey 3
Standing by functional electrical stimulation in paraplegia, by Kralj and Jaeger 48(A)

Energy Metabolism
Energy expenditure of ambulation in paraplegics: effects of long term use of bracing, by Chantraine et al. 173
Wheelchair exercise testing: comparison of continuous and discontinuous exercise, by Whiting et al. 92

Ergot
Ergot poisoning in paraplegia, by Lenger 42

Femoral Fractures
Treatment of femoral shaft fractures in the spinal cord injury patient using the Wagner leg lengthening device, by Baird and Kreitenberg 366

Fracture Reduction
Combined simultaneous anterior-posterior column-neural decompression and fusion for fracture-dislocation of the thoracic and lumbar spine, by Edelstein et al. 46(A)
Compression-distraction instrumentation of thoracolumbar fractures, by Keene et al. 47(A)
Dislocations of the cervical spine: closed reduction under anaesthesia, by Kleyn 271
Dislocations at the cervico thoracic junction, by Evans 58(A)
Halo-body device, by Hughes et al. 260
Inoperable cervical spine fractures, by Saul 46(A)
Non-halo/non-surgical management of C1-C2 fractures, by Bell et al. 45(A)
Problems in the Harrington instrumentation of patients with paraplegia from a spinal fracture, by Murray et al. 47(A)

Frankel, Dr Hans L.
Profile 5

Haemodialysis
Endocrine pathology in spinal cord injured patients on maintenance dialysis, by Barton et al. 7
Long-term haemodialysis in spinal cord injured patients, by Vaziri 110
Renal pathology in end-stage renal disease associated with paraplegia, by Barton et al. 31

Hand
An apparatus making possible restoration of simple functions of the tetraplegic hand, by Kiwerski and Pasniczek 316
Posterior deltoid to triceps transfer: a review of the experience at Rancho Los Amigos Hospital, by Raczka and Braun 53(A)
Preliminary communication: a tridigital dynamic orthosis for tetraplegic patients, by Dollfus and Oberlé 115
Tendon surgery to restore useful upper limb function following cervical spinal cord injury, by Freehafer et al. 52(A)
Two-stage upper extremity reconstruction in the tetraplegic patient, by Hamlin et al. 53(A)

Head Injuries
Traumatic cerebral flaccid paraplegia, by Teddy et al. 320

Hyperbaric Oxygenation
Osteomyelitis in the spinal cord injured: a review and a preliminary report on the use of hyperbaric oxygen therapy, by Eltorai et al. 17

Kidney Calculi
Dietary management of urinary risk factors in renal stone formers, by Rao et al. 58(A)
The risk of bladder calculi in spinal cord injury patients, by Devivo et al. 51(A)

Meetings, Announcements
59, 129, 199, 267, 270, 332, 387

Mortality
Functional outcome and mortality in spinal cord injury secondary to malignancy, by Murray 54(A)

Neoplasms
Functional outcome and mortality in spinal cord injury secondary to malignancy, by Murray 54(A)
Pathological conditions obscured by paraplegia, by Pool 27

Nerve Regeneration
Peripheral nerve implants in the spinal cord in experimental animals, by Wilson 230
Regeneration in the human spinal cord: a review of the response to injury of the various constituents of the human spinal cord, by Hughes 131

Neuropathic Bladder
Antibody-coated bacteria in urine: criterion for positive test and its value in detecting a higher risk of treatment failure, by Gergan et al. 197(A)
Clean intermittent catheterizations as the initial management for spinal cord injured patients, by Maynard 49(A)
A critical review of urodynamic investigations in spinal cord injury patients, by Wyndaele 138

The cutano–anal reflex: a useful index of neuropathy? by Bartolo et al. 197(A)
Electrical stimulation of the conus medullaris for bladder emptying in the paraplegic, by Carlsson and Fall 87
Nicergoline in the treatment of neuropathic bladder dysfunction: a preliminary report, by Gallego et al. 216
Non-operative management of extra-peritoneal rupture of the urinary bladder in a tetraplegic patient, by Goel 325
Over-distension therapy of the bladder in paraplegic patients using self-catheterisation: a preliminary study, by Iwatsubo et al. 210
Prediction of urinary tract complications in spinal cord injury patients: follow-up studies, by Lloyd et al. 50(A)
The risk of bladder calculi in spinal cord injury patients, by Devivo et al. 51(A)
The role of urodynamics in the management of spinal cord injured patients, by Gardner et al. 157
Urodynamic observations on patients with sacral anterior root stimulators, by Cardozo et al. 201
Urodynamic practice in neuro-urological patients: techniques and clinical value, by Madersbacher and Dietl 145
Urodynamic studies in evaluating detrusor sphincter dyssynergia and their effects on the treatment, by Buczyński 168
Use of the artificial urinary sphincter to achieve continence in patients with a spinal cord injury, by Light 50(A)
Use of urodynamic studies to assess the effect of pharmacological agents with particular references to alpha-adrenergic blockade, by Thomas et al. 162

Neurological Sequelae
Motor and sensory recovery following spinal cord injury, by Goldberg et al. 48(A)
Spinal cord injury: a sensory restriction perspective, by Richards et al. 49(A)

Osteomyelitis
Osteomyelitis in the spinal cord injured: a review and a preliminary report on the use of hyperbaric oxygen therapy, by Eltorai et al. 17

Patient Education
See Education

Poisoning
Atropine toxicity in acute cervical spinal injury, by Baker and Silver 379
Benzene poisoning as a possible cause of transverse myelitis, by Herregods et al. 305
Ergot poisoning in paraplegia, by Lenger 42

Pressure Sores
Development and evaluation of a universal contoured cushion, by Perkash et al. 358
Osteomyelitis in the spinal cord injured: a review and a preliminary report on the use of hyperbaric oxygen therapy, by Eltorai et al. 17
Pressure sores: factors influencing care, by Apple and Murray 51(A)
Salvage procedures for recurrent pressure sores, by Kenney et al. 52(A)
Underseat pressure distribution in the sitting spinal injury patient, by Minns et al. 297

Psychological Reactions
Programme of active education in the psychosocial integration of paraplegics, by Pachalski and Pachalska 238
1. Social, sexual and personal implications of paraplegia, by Ray and West 75
2. Coping with spinal cord injury, by Ray and West 249
Transient psychosis in acute spinal cord injury patients, by Woodbury and Ditunno 49(A)

Rehabilitation
Follow-up of paraplegic patients after comprehensive rehabilitation, by Sposito et al. 373
Rehabilitation after spinal cord injuries complicated by previous lesions, by Ohry and Frankel 291
The role of the home visiting nurse in the total education programme of spinal cord injured persons, by Beer 311

Renal Failure
Endocrine pathology in spinal cord injured patients on maintenance dialysis, by Barton et al. 7
Long-term haemodialysis in spinal cord injured patients, by Vaziri 110
Renal pathology in end-stage renal disease associated with paraplegia, by Barton et al. 31

Respiration
Non-operative management of extra-peritoneal rupture of the urinary bladder in a tetraplegic patient, by Goel et al. 325

Rossier, Professor Alain B
Profile by Dollfus 335

Sexual Function
1. Social, sexual and personal implications of paraplegia 75
2. Coping with spinal cord injury, by Ray and West 249
Sexual dysfunction after spinal cord or cauda equina lesions, by Larsen and Hejgaard 66

Skin Diseases
Dermal fibrosis secondary to autonomic dysfunction following spinal cord injury, by Stover et al. 198(A)

Dermatological complications of spinal cord injury, by Parsons and Stawiski 51(A)

Spinal Cord
Reflex organization of the spinal cord and its descending control, by Bedbrook 124(A)
Regeneration in the human spinal cord: a review of the response to injury of the various constituents of the human spinal cord, by Hughes 131

Spondylosis
The surgical treatment of cervical canal stenosis in patients with cervical spondylosis, by Kiwerski and Ahmad 25

Standing
Cardiovascular and haemodynamic responses to tilting and to standing in tetraplegic patients: a review, by Figoni 99
Standing by functional electrical stimulation in paraplegia, by Kralj and Jaeger 48(A)

Thromboembolism
Ergot poisoning in paraplegia, by Lenger 42

Tilting
Cardiovascular and haemodynamic responses to tilting and standing in tetraplegic patients: a review, by Figoni 99
Sympathetic reflex control of subcutaneous blood flow in tetraplegic man during postural changes, by Skagen et al. 197(A)
A tilting bed for the urodynamic assessment of spinal cord injured patients, by Gardner et al. 383

Tomography, X-ray Computed
Spinal cord injury: optimization of computerised tomography image factors for accuracy, by Seibert et al. 26

Transverse Myelitis
Benzene poisoning as a possible cause of transverse myelitis, by Herregods et al. 305

Vasoconstriction
Sympathetic reflex control of subcutaneous blood flow in tetraplegic man during postural changes, by Skagen et al. 197(A)

Urinary Catheterisation
Clean intermittent catheterisations as the initial management for spinal cord injured patients, by Maynard and Diokno 49(A)
Non-operative management of extra-peritoneal rupture of the urinary bladder in a tetraplegic patient, by Goel et al. 325
Over-distension therapy of the bladder in paraplegic patients using self-catheterisation: a preliminary study, by Iwatsubo et al. 210
A prospective study of the efficacy of low dose nitrofurantoin in preventing urinary tract infections in spinal cord injury patients, with comments on the role of pseudomonads, by Lindan and Joiner 61

War Injuries
Traumatic cerebral flaccid paraplegia, by Teddy et al. 320

Wheelchair Exercise
Wheelchair exercise testing: comparison of continuous and discontinuous exercise, by Whiting et al. 92

Wheelchair Cushions
Development and evaluation of a universal contoured cushion by Perkash et al. 358
Underseat pressure distribution in the sitting spinal injury patient, by Minns et al. 297
